Thoughts From Today's Sermon

All of us come across people who are difficult to love and drive us outside our comfort zone. Often we find it easier to avoid them. Matthew 25 challenges us to view these people referred to as the least of these as if they are Christ himself. Ellen White further challenges us in lessons from the Sermon on the Mount that the reason why Christianity has so little impact is because people take on the name of Christ while their actions betray Him. How we act when we are outside our comfort zone is often the biggest statement we make.

Mission Statement

We accept the ministry given to us by God: to bring the healing power of Jesus' love to people, and to provide a nurturing place to build a friendship with Him.

Welcome

A heart felt welcome to our church family and guests on this beautiful Sabbath morning! We are delighted to have yet another opportunity to come together in God's presence. We have every reason to be here, to praise and worship the only One who is deserving of our adoration. May we all find in Christ our heart's desire, and in our song, our prayer, our listening and our fellowship, the transformation of His amazing grace.

A fellowship meal with our guests in mind has been planned for immediately following the worship service this morning. This is an opportunity to get better acquainted and enjoy the love that God has put in our hearts for one another. Everyone is welcome!

CHURCH BOARD DECISION: Last Monday our church board addressed the challenging situation Jackie & Nick Mazariegos are facing regarding the loss of Jackie's rights to make decisions regarding Ava's education. They are seeking the Lord's will and want to appeal the court's decision. "Ava's Fund" has been established for those who wish to help (gifts to this fund are not tax deductible). Most important is the need to keep the Mazariegos in our prayers. For more details please feel free to talk to Jackie or Nick.
