

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Ah yes, these things I too, will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart and share with me

God wanted me now—He has set me free.

Life Reflections

JEFFREY SMITH was born on April 17, 1952, to Judson and Margaret Smith, who preceded him in death.

“Jeffrey,” affectionately known as “Chubby,” a.k.a. “Chub,” was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System and graduated from Bok High School. He loved electronics and was known as the neighborhood electrician.

“Jeffrey” served in the United States Navy and then was employed at Lockheed Martin as a Computer Technician. Computers were his passion.

In 1986, “Jeffrey” married Debra Carter, and they were blessed with one daughter.

“Jeffrey” will be missed by wife, Debra; daughter, Lakoya; grandchildren, Torey and Tahjay; siblings, Brenda, Kathryn, Diane, William, and Robert; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other extended family, and friends.
