Obituary

Stevie was born August 24, 1979 at Candler County Hospital.

Stevie is preceded in death by his maternal great grandparents Clarence and Gertie Mae Brunson, maternal grandfather Nathaniel Howard and paternal grandparents Albert and Jewel Mincey Henry.

Stevie leaves his precious memories with his parents, Steve and LaFaye Brunson Henry. His loving children, Ashante Henry, Steven Henry, Jr., Nakya Rogers, Alexander Henry, Anovia Lewis, Samyria Henry, and Kori Jenkins. His granddaughter, Skylin Anderson who affectionately called him "Pa-Pa". He also leaves fond memories with his siblings, Shumekia (Chris) Lewis, Shantell Henry, Michelle Henry, Earick Henry, Liz Henry, Steve Gordon, Phillip Henry, Keasia Brunson, and Stevanna Henry. His maternal grandmother, Minnie Ruth Hodges.

Stevie received his education from the Bulloch County School System and was formerly employed at Great Dane.

Stevie thrived on family! Outside of being a big Mama's boy, which was no secret, his greatest accomplishment was his children. He was a great father, one who loved and made sure his children knew one another and remained connected. Stevie's love and personality also allowed him to have a special yet unique bond with each of his siblings individually.

Stevie was full of life! To know him was to love him. He was a people's person and didn't meet a stranger. He was the light in every room he entered. He had a HUGE heart and was willing to help anyone at anytime. Even if he couldn't, you would not have known because he wouldn't stop until he made it possible. He was rare. Stevie truly was One of the Good Ones.

On Sundays, you could find him watching football, especially if the Dallas Cowboys were playing. He was also a big fan of the Kobe Bryant era Lakers. He had a passion for old cars. He was a great cook, but he loved going out to eat. He enjoyed social gatherings with family and friends. Stevie cared deeply about the children in the neighborhood, and he was always giving back to the community.

Stevie also leaves to cherish a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
