The Family of Charlie Broadway wish to express our sincere appreciation for all the calls, cards, flowers, visits and the love during our time of bereavement. May God Bless You and keep you.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Reflections of His Life

Charlie J. Broadway "Charles", was born September 18, 1936, in Moro, Arkansas to L. A. Broadway and Naomi Mays.

Charles attended Lake View High School in Lakeview, Arkansas. He later enlisted in the United State Navy for seven and a half years, residing Long Beach, California. After his tenure, he relocated to Kansas City, Missouri in 1964.

Charles retired from the Parks & Recreation Department of Kansas City, Missouri for eleven years, while also working part-time at the Kansas City Oil Service Station. After working twenty one years at Veterans Hospital, he finally retired in 2011.

Broadway loved his Soap Operas!; "The Young & the Restless" and "All My Children." And when it came to Sports, everyone knew Broadway LOVED the Kansas City Chiefs, "Go Chiefs". If it wasn't the KC Chiefs, he was watching wrestling, and if not those, he would watch all of the other sports. When Broadway wasn't watching sports, you could find him in his Black Beauty (his car) listening to Blues music or Lee Williams Gospel group and cleaning Black Beauty off or cruising around KC.

Broadway joined union on September 23, 2000 to Carolyn L. Thomas of Kansas City, Missouri for twenty one happy years.

On Tuesday, August 16, 2022 at Saint Luke's of Kansas City Hospice House is where he departed this life. His parents, L. A. Broadway and Naomi Mays; brothers, Quint-Timothy Broadway, Jerome Broadway, and Prentiss Broadway; sister, Joyce Ann Broadway; and sons, Marshall Broadway, and Charles Broadway Sr., all preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Carolyn L. Broadway; daughters, Pastor Detra Broadway Sims (Arthur), California, Michelle Broadway and Jasmine Cole, both of Kansas City, MO; sons, Craig Broadway, and Steven Broadway, both of Kansas City, MO; sisters, Cheryl Jones (Carl), Arlington, TX, Janice Sergeant (Ernest), Little Rock, AR, and Wanda Williams (Archie), Germantown, TN; brothers, Marshall Broadway, Amos Broadway, both of Kansas City, MO, Kendall Hassan Al-uqdah (Linda), Herbert Broadway, both of Little Rock, AK, and Clarence Broadway, Arlington, TX; special friends, Lonnie Story, Don Clayborn, Cory Johnson, Johnnie Green Jr.; special great-niece, Lovee Mae Thomas; caregivers, Karen Rodgers, Lanora Gordon, Ella "Sista" Phillips, and Linda Aguilar; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great-nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Auntie,
Uncle Broadway wants you to know the LOVE he has for you is something that can never be taken away. So, HOLD onto that and know that he is with you ALWAYS.
Marskia "Kia" Thomas
