COMPUTER USER CONTRACT

In order to use the Computer Network and Internet, I need to understand and agree to obey the following rules. If I do not use the Network and Internet in the right way, my teacher may take away my privilege of using them.

- The Internet is to learn more about the subjects I am studying at school. I will not use the Internet for any other reason. For example, I will not search for a comic book site when I am supposed to be looking for something in science.
 - Chat rooms and e-mail are available to me only when my teacher gives permission or directions.

- I will be polite to other people when writing or talking to them while on the Network. I will not use words or language that my teacher or parent would not want me to use.

- I will not bring disks or CDs from home and put them in the computer.
- The files I create will be saved on my personal jump drive. I will not save documents on the computer.
 - I will not get into folders or files that do not belong to me.
 - I will always use the computer materials carefully.
 - I will not take food or drink to the computer area.
 - If it seems that the computer is not working right, I will tell the teacher and not try to fix it myself.
 - I understand that if I loose my computer privileges I am still responsible for completing my assignments and I might get a zero if using a computer is required for my work.

Safety Rules

- I will never give my name, my home address, any personal information about me, my telephone number or information about my school phone or address to anyone I write to or talk with on the Internet. I will never put a picture of myself or a friend on the Internet without my parent's permission.

I understand that sometimes I may see a site on the Internet that has pictures or words that my teachers or parents would not want me to see. I will not try to find those sites, and if I come across one of them by accident, I will leave as fast as I can. I will use my back key to take me to another site. I will not continue to look at the site with the bad picture or words, and I WILL NOT show it to others around me. I will not print it or save it. Then I will quietly tell the teacher what

Legal Stuff

- People I write to or talk with on the Internet cannot see me, so they will not know what I look like or how old I am. I promise to never tell people that I am someone else. I will always check with my teacher before sending an e-mail to someone new.
 - I understand that the teachers and/or my parents may look at documents and log files to ensure that I am using the system responsibly.
 - I agree that I cannot use the words or pictures I see on an Internet site without giving credit to the person who owns the site. I will not copy information from the Internet and give it to my teacher as my own work.

Student's Agreement

I have read the rules (or understand the rules as they have been read to me). I agree to obey these rules when I am using the computers at school.

Parents' Agreement

I have read these rules with/to my child and believe he/she understands them. I understand that employees of the school will make every reasonable effort to restrict access to inappropriate material on the Internet, but I will not hold them responsible for materials my child acquires or sees as a result of the use of the Internet from the school facilities. I give my permission for my child to use the Internet at school.
