Frederick (Fred) William Manning
Born February 5, 1942 – Died January 4, 2024

Fred Manning, 81, of Bothwell, Utah, passed away on January 4th, 2024. He was born on February 5th, 1942, in Brigham City, Utah, to Hugh Manning and Ruth Manning nee Davis. Fred was a beloved husband, brother, brother-in-law, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Fred's journey was enriched by his deep love and commitment to his cherished spouse, Linda Yocom Manning. Together, they embraced the joys and challenges of life, creating a bond that will forever endure. Fred's dedication to his family was unwavering, as he leaves behind five of his six children and their families, who will forever be grateful for his guidance and great love. Although his heart ached from the loss of his beloved daughter, Elise Manning, Fred's faith provided solace and strength. His dear sister, Diane Green, shares in the sorrow of his passing and holds dear the memories they shared.

Fred was a dedicated teacher, specializing in kindergarten education. He had a passion for nurturing young minds and shaping future generations. His impact on his students and the community will not be forgotten.

Throughout his life, Fred Manning exemplified the value of respect, not just for his fellow human beings but for all of creation. He found solace and inspiration in the wonders of the natural world, recognizing the divine presence in every stalk of wheat, every whispering breeze, and every radiant sunrise.

Fred's legacy will forever shine through the hearts and minds of his family, the lives he touched, and the knowledge he imparted to his students.

A solemn memorial service, steeped in joy and gratitude, will be held Saturday January 13th starting at 10:00 am for all to come and visit in memory. The funeral service will start at 12:00 noon to honor and celebrate Fred's life. All services will be held at the Bothwell LDS Chapel located at 10350 W 11600 N, Bothwell, UT 84337.

As we bid farewell to Fred Manning, let us remember his loving spirit, his faith, and his profound love for family and knowledge. May his soul find eternal peace in the embrace of the divine, and may his legacy continue to inspire us to live lives filled with humility, gratitude, and respect for all of creation.
