Gift Wrapping help needed on Dec 2. Christmas caroling is around the corner and in order to be ready, we have 200 sets of books that need to be stamped, wrapped and labeled. When we knock on doors, we will put a Great Controversy and a book on the reformation in the hands of the residents. We will start gift wrapping at 2 p.m. (after lunch) on Dec 2. If you can, bring spare scissors and tape.

Mark your calendar and plan to attend our Church business meeting Dec. 10. We are heading toward starting two services in January and information will be shared and discussed at this meeting. In addition to annual business items. Be sure to check your mailbox for the agenda and meeting details.

2018 Devotional Books: Personal Ministries has samples of the 2018 devotional books for all ages for your review in the foyer. Orders placed will be picked up from the ABC and delivered to you here at the church before Christmas.
