Obituary

Katrene D. Corley was born on December 11, 1962 to the late Robert Corley and Mattie Taylor in Miami, Florida. She was educated in the Chatham County School System and worked in the hospitality industry for over 35 years. Her desire to help and serve others extended beyond work. Ms. Corley rarely missed an opportunity to feed the hungry, provide shelter or money for those in need. She had a caring heart and gave selflessly. She was a devoted mother, sister, aunt, and friend. Ms. Corley seldom let the troubles of this world get her down. She was known as the life of the party.

Ms. Corley was preceded in death by her parents and three siblings; Warren, Cassandra and Loretta.

Ms. Corley leaves to cherish her memories two children, Lawanda Corley (Michael) and David Corley (Monique) of Savannah, GA; a host of grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren; four siblings, Rodney Harris, James Mitchell, William Harris of Savannah, GA, and Sharon Williams of Jacksonville, FL; one brother-in-law, David L. Bolden of Tuscaloosa, AL; a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

by Eric Horner

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I'll know you miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
