THE LIFE STORY OF

Cleotha Crockett

Cleotha Crockett was born in Tallulah, Louisiana on November 12, 1955, to the late Louis Amos and Carrie Crockett-Amos. With his children, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews by his side, he departed this life on July 27, 2024, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

He was married to Virginia Mae Hall for 37 years. He is a proud graduate of McCall Senior High School, class of 1973. He was a proud employee of Hilton Las Vegas where he worked in his early years until his health declined. He enjoyed his responsibilities as the patriarch for his children and favorite uncle for his many loving nieces and nephews across the states.

He loved to travel, build friendships, and start the party. He was also actively involved in raising his grandchildren who called him by “Dad”. He gave his life to the Lord and became a deacon at the New Macedonia Church in Tallulah, Louisiana. He was a beacon of light for many, living every moment to the fullest sharing laughter, love, and most of all joy.

He leaves behind the legacy of his daughters: Markieta Crockett-Hall, China Crockett-Hall, and Sequoia Crockett-Hall; son: David Reed; grandsons: Johnathan Crockett, Jahnathan Crockett, Brian Johnson, Kylon Johnson, Kylob Johnson, Xavier Garrett, and Austin Snead; granddaughters: Jazzie Jackson, Jazmine Jackson, and Olivia Stewart; great-grandchildren: Jaiden Crockett, Ion Crockett, Zaila Crockett and Noryah Crockett. His brother: Clarence Crockett; sisters: Brenda Whitney, Chartha Crockett, Susie Butler and Margaret Spearman; brother-in-laws: Michael Whitney and John Spearman; aunts: Mary Crockett and Mary (Lady) Washington; and a host of loving and caring nieces, nephews, and cousins. The love of his life Mary Farris (Girlfriend). He is preceded in death by his daughter Janet Gilbert-Jackson, wife Virginia Hall, sister Virginia Crockett, and brothers Clifton Amos, Freddie Wells, and Andrew Amos.
