

MY WORLD

*Mine is a happy world,
Where children run about,
A bird house in the garden
And zinnias coming out.
Mine is a strange world,
With many things to see,
The miracle of daffodils,
The coloring of a tree.
Mine is a glad world,
Despite its round of care,
With books piled up about me,
And an easy leather chair.
Mine is a rich world,
With jeweled skies above;
Four seasons spill their treasures
Upon the spot I love.
Mine is a small world,
But wonderful it seems,
With room for friends and neighbors,
And room enough for dreams.*
