Kevin was born February 9, 1965 to Verdel and Sandra (Glass) Johnson in Norfolk, Nebraska. He was a graduate of Yankton High School. Kevin was a hard worker. Over the years he worked construction, did well drilling, worked for Guarantee Roofing and Sheet Metal, was a painter and a fiberglass manufacturer.

Kevin loved cars in his younger years, even owning some classic cars. He enjoyed detailing vehicles and could fix anything on them.

Kevin loved kids and was just in general, a good-hearted guy. He always took time out of his busy schedule to visit with the people he encountered. Kevin was quick to volunteer for anyone needing help. He took great interest in local events and news. Kevin was always the go-to guy for driving the family to events. No one ever spoke up, but in the backs of their minds, they wondered if he actually had a valid driver's license.
