

Cassidy Dubree, 20 of Bowling Green went to meet the Lord on Thursday, June 12, 2014 in Pittsburg, PA after a lengthy battle with Cystic Fibrosis.

The Warren County native was a student at Warren East High School where she graduated with honors and played softball and soccer. She raced and won in the soapbox derby and attended Bowling Green Tech. She also received the Tom Leach (voice of University of Kentucky basketball) all resilient athlete award. She attended Smiths Grove Baptist Church and Hillvue Heights Baptist Church. She was outgoing and athletic. She is preceded in death by her paternal grandfather, Jack Dubree and cousin, Chloe James.

Her survivors include her parents, Steven Dubree and Tammy Elliott; her loving brother, Austin Dubree; maternal grandmother, Linda Woolley; paternal grandmother, Shelvie Dubree; two aunts, Lisa Dubree Goss(Rick) and Cammie Howton (Colby), six cousins, Devin & Danielle Goss, Carley Goss, Connor Bowles, Keira James, Kayleigh James, Kyiah Howton; great uncle, Ted Dubree and a host of friends.

Funeral service 12:00 Tuesday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Smiths Grove Cemetery. Visitation 3:00-8:00 p.m. Monday and 9:00 a.m.-12:00 Tuesday at the funeral home.

Send Condolences