GRANDPA'S FUNERAL

I stood by your side,
My head bent low,
praying a silent prayer.
"Dad," I said,
But you did not answer.

The only sound I heard was the quiet.
*"Dad, I brought your music,
they're Polkas, Waltz's and Two-Steps."*
I played them, waiting for him to answer me,
but he did not.

The tears ran down my cheeks
Because Dad and his music would be memories
"Dad, I love you" I whispered.

• IN LOVING MEMORY •
