

There's people who take risks to see the view and those who won't I've lived for the good times and done things that others don't

*I boated, camped, hunted, and fished.
It's safe to say I have rallied it all Look up to the heavens
when you need to give me a call*

And whenever you start to think of me just know I'm right where I needed to be

I'll Lend You A Child

“I’ll lend you for a little time a child of Mine, He said.
“For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he’s dead.
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for Me?
He’ll bring his charms to gladden you and should his stay be brief
You’ll have his loving memories as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay since all from earth returns
But there are lessons taught down there I want the child to learn.
I’ve looked this wide world over in my search for teachers true
And from the throngs that crowd life’s lanes I have selected you;
Now will you give him all your love nor think the labor vain?
Nor hate Me when I come to call and take him back again?
I fancied that I heard you say “Dear Lord, Thy will be done.”
For all the joy Thy child shall bring for the risk of grief we’ll run.
We’ll shelter him with tenderness and love him while we may
And for the happiness we’ve known forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him much sooner than we’ve planned
We’ll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.
