

The Broken Chain

By Ron Tranmer

We Little Knew the day that God was going To call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Your Daughter and Son

In the tapestry of life, a thread unraveled, Grandmother's departure, hearts left traveled. Her love, a compass, guides from afar, in cherished memories, beneath the evening star.

After marriage, Julia moved her membership to the Harden Chapel Baptist Church of Montezuma GA where she served as an Usher faithfully until her health failed her.
