Morticians Brief

Grace Elizabeth Moore was born on January 27, 1941, in Johnston County, North Carolina and departed this life November 14, 2023, in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She was the fourteenth of fifteen children of Richard and Flora Jane (Kate) Fellers Moore.

Grace grew up and worked in Smithfield, North Carolina prior to residing in Winston-Salem, North Carolina with her niece and family. She was a former member of St. Peter's Disciple Church in Smithfield, North Carolina.

Grace never met a stranger. She was full of grace and humility. She lived a full life surrounded by the love of family and friends. Grace was special to many Guilford County Schools principals and staff. In fact, she was an honorary principal considering the number of Saturdays and other hours spent at Foust, Rankin, Washington Street, and Fairview Elementary while accompanying her niece, Geraldine, in her work. Her special love was with the J.D. Diggs faculty and staff where she was able to "learn school stuff" and be loved.

She was preceded in death by her parents Richard Moore and Flora Jane (Kate) Fellers Moore and fourteen siblings. Grace was the last of the original Moore Clan. She leaves to cherish her memory a host of nephews, nieces, relatives, and friends; a special sister-in-law, Jean Moore, a special nephew, Clarence Cox, Jr. (care giver and friend), Hattie Raynor, (life- long friend), Darlene Scales and the staff of CRT Golden Lamb.

Her initials come out to spell "GEM" and for us that's what she'll always be; Grace, he genuinely shed his Amazing Grace on thee. MOORE love forever!
