

GOD looked around the garden,
 And found an empty space.
 He looked down upon the earth,
 And saw your tired face. He put
His arms around you
 And lifted you to rest.
 God's garden must be beautiful
 For He only takes the BEST.
 He knew that you were weary,
 and He knew that you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never be well on earth again.
 He saw the roads were getting rough,
 and the hills were hard to climb.
 So He closed your weary eyelids,
Peace be Shine. and whispered

To know you are with us in our time of Sorrow
 Sharing our prayers,
 Today & tomorrow
God gives us comfort in the form of family & friends.
 May His peace be with you,
 His love never ends.

Celebrating...Honoring...Remembering...
 Patricia Gail Hendrix Brady
 May 27, 1948 - November 3, 2024

On Sunday evening, November 3, 2024, Patricia Gail Hendrix Brady went to be with the Lord she so faithfully served. Trisha's final days were spent in the comfort of her home, surrounded by the love of her family and friends. She was 76 years old, and courageously fought pancreatic cancer for four weeks.

The only child of L.G. and Alvanell Coker Hendrix, Trisha was born on May 27, 1948, in Royston, Georgia, where she grew up with a nurturing and generous heart that would define her life's work and legacy. Having graduated from Madison County High School in 1966, she furthered her education at North Georgia Tech, where she earned a degree in cosmetology.

Trisha built a remarkable career as a beautician, working over 50 years in the beauty industry. She culminated her professional journey as the owner and operator of Patricia's Beauty Salon at Merle Norman in Royston. Her talents and skills were admired by many, but it was her warm personality that made her clients feel welcomed and cherished.

Trisha was not only dedicated to her profession but also actively engaged in her faith and church. As a devoted member of Deep Creek Baptist Church, she served faithfully in various capacities, including the Women's ministry and church choir. With a special passion for children, Trisha never missed an opportunity to teach them about Christ, whether in the toddler nursery, during AWANA on Wednesday nights, or through the primary Sunday school class. Her commitment to service also extended to the WOW group, a social circle for widows, where she offered support and companionship. She enjoyed her membership in the Royston Pilot Club and the lifelong friends it afforded her.

An avid flower gardener, Trisha found joy in nurturing beautiful blooms, often expressing her creativity through her garden. She had a keen eye for shopping, and loved the thrill of uncovering the next best deal. With a warm smile and an open heart, Trisha welcomed everyone into her life, treating all with kindness and love. Her caring personality was evident, and she always made those around her feel special and valued.

Trisha is survived by her devoted husband of 33 years, Larry Wayne Brady; and children: Tara (Arnold) Jaudon of Lexington, Rhonda (Bobby) Dunn of Elberton, Rene' (Mike) Turner of Elberton, and Marc (Ashley) Brady of Milledgeville. She was a devoted "Meme" to her grandchildren: Zack (Ali) Evans, the late Austin Evans, Brady (Michelle) Turner, Andy (Meagan) Turner, Corey (Chloey) Dunn, Allie (Curt) Gammon, Max Brady, Ben Brady, and Eli Brady, as well as her great-grandchildren: Braxton, Khyler, Ryleigh, Brooklynn, and Peyton.

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A season,
AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN:
A TIME TO BE BORN,
AND A TIME TO DIE;
A TIME TO PLANT,
AND A TIME TO PLUCK UP THAT WHICH IS PLANTED;
A TIME TO KILL,
AND A TIME TO HEAL; A TIME TO BREAK DOWN,
AND A TIME TO BUILD UP,
a time to Weep
AND A TIME TO LAUGH;
A TIME TO MOURN, AND A TIME TO DANCE;
A TIME TO CAST AWAY STONES,
AND A TIME TO GATHER STONES TOGETHER;
A TIME TO Embrace
AND A TIME TO REFRAIN FROM EMBRACING;
A TIME TO SEEK, AND A TIME TO LOSE;
A TIME TO KEEP, AND A TIME TO CAST AWAY;
A TIME TO REND, AND A TIME TO SEW;
A TIME TO KEEP SILENCE, AND A TIME TO SPEAK;
A TIME TO LOVE, AND A TIME TO HATE;
A TIME FOR WAR, AND A TIME FOR Peace
