PRAYER

Let now your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

John 14: 1-3

A NOTE OF THANKS

Andrew's family honors and celebrates his life and legacy of kindness and servant leadership. We are truly blessed to have loved him and the way he loved us. We thank you for sharing your love and celebrating his life with us. With the most grateful honor and thanks, on behalf of Past Master Brother Andrew Johnson, we would like to thank his lodge and brothers of HM Turner #99.

ANDREW'S LIFE STORY

Andrew Lee Johnson of Philadelphia, Pa. was born on December 31, 1943, in Augusta Georgia. He was born to the late Jesse Johnson and Mary Price. Andrew was educated in the Philadelphia public school system and later received a certificate as a welder.

Andrew truly enjoyed work. He began working at the ripe age of 12 at Freeman's Market as a grocery stocker. He also learned how to do many other trades such as brickwork, cement work, roofing, home remodeling and auto mechanic work. Andrew also worked as a dedicated butcher and foreman for many years at Penn Packing Meat Company until closing. Andrew then worked as a supervisor of road and construction crews at Miller's and Sons for 18 years until retirement in 2005.

Andrew married his childhood sweetheart Ethel Johnson on June 30th, 1962. He was a devout husband and father; they were inseparable and remained married for 39 1/2 years until Ethel's death. They raised two daughters Andrea Lisa Johnson and Jennifer Marie Johnson. On August 4th, 2002, Andrew married Carolyn Moses-Bailey. Andrew, the wonderful man and father that he was, loved Carolyn's daughter Lakisha Washington as his own. Andrew had a powerful presence and was a loving, caring man. Together, he and Carolyn enjoyed every moment of their 21 years of marriage. Andrew was loved and respected by many. Family and friends called him "Lee"; neighbors and former coworkers called him "Johnson". He was known for being a dedicated worker and servant leader who took great care of his family. In Andrew's words "both wives are special; my children, grandchildren and great grandchildren are special too".

Andrew was a member of Rome Emmanuel Baptist Church from the age of three and was baptized at the early age of five. He was also an active member of the Prince Grand Lodge HM Turner #99 of Philadelphia Pa for 50 years.

Andrew enjoyed spending time with his family and like many, always wanted to be a millionaire. In his spare time, he enjoyed renovating his home, riding his motorcycle, vacations, watching cowboy movies, sports and walking his dogs. He will be truly missed by many.

In addition to his parents and first wife, Andrew was preceded in death by two siblings, James Johnson and Gwendolyn Way. He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Carolyn Johnson, daughters Andrea Johnson (Ameen Young), Jennifer Johnson and step daughter Lakisha Washington (Damon Washington); his 8 grandchildren Marvin Williams, Daneen Wiliams, Isaiah Williams, Angelica Calhoun, Chinasa Chibundu, Uzoma Chibundu, Kelechi Chibundu and Chuma Chibundu; 7 great grandchildren Quadir, Jalonie, Janiyah, Camryn, Kelechi Jr., Marie and Johnny Jr., 8 special grandchildren D, Lamar, Najah, Rafiq, Ajanae, Nasir and Cianni. His siblings Beverly Johnson, Imogene Johnson, and Alvin Johnson; mother-in-law Helen Bailey and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
