The Final Tribute

We come together to remember and celebrate the life of Latasha Lyman, a beloved individual whose presence graced this world from December 27, 1971, until her sudden passing on April 29, 2024.

Latasha, the cherished daughter of Willie Lyman and Jean Whitley, was a dedicated mother to her three children - John, Jaquill, and Ta'shayia - and a loving grandmother to Mecca and Zach.

Her life was a beautiful blend of love and enthusiasm, radiating a contagious energy that touched the hearts of all who knew her. Latasha took delight in life's simple pleasures, from humming tunes to preparing delicious meals, and sharing her wisdom with her children, nieces, and nephews.

With a talent for interior design and a passion for reggae music, Latasha was the life of every gathering.

Today, we gather with warmth and appreciation to commemorate Latasha's legacy. Her spirit will forever encourage us to find happiness in the little moments and live each day with a joyful tune in our hearts.

May her soul find eternal peace and comfort in the heavens above.

BROKEN CHAIN

Ron Tranmer

We little knew that day,
 God was going to call your name.
 In life, we loved you dearly,
 In death, we do the same.
 It broke our hearts to lose you.
 You did not go alone.
 For part of us went with you,
 The day God called you home.
 You left us peaceful memories,
 Your love is still our guide.
 And although we cannot see you,
 You are always at our side.
 Our family chain is broken,
 And nothing seems the same,
 But as God calls us one by one,
 The chain will link again.
