I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

SHAE NOELE (HUG) BYRUM, 47 of Mandan passed away November 12, 2023.

Shae was born March 2nd, 1976 in Bismarck to her mother, LeAna Tilden and her sister, Shannon.

In 1983, she got her forever dad, Tom Hug and moved to his house in Elgin, IL. When Shae was 14, her love of animals helped her get her first job at a pet store in PA.

The family returned to North Dakota from Pennsylvania in 1993.

Shae attended schools in Fargo, Elgin, IL., Pottstown, PA, and Bismarck, ND.

In 1999, she married Keith Byrum.

One of her favorite places to visit was the Bismarck Zoo. She went there many times to see the animals. She also had a deep love of the Missouri River and spent time every week walking along the banks, picking up trash and rescuing turtles that were in need. She loved gardening and spending time outdoors. Shae was extremely creative and talented. She was very proud of her work keeping the Schilling building clean and well maintained. Everything had a purpose with Shae and she was always on the look-out for items that people could use. She helped anyone in need.

You can float through a life created by circumstances,
missing day after day,
hour after hour.
Or, you can fight for what you believe in
and write the great story of your life.
I hope you will make the right choice.

Leave a mark in this world.
Have meaningful life,
whatever definition it has for you.

Go towards it.

The place we are leaving
is a beautiful playground,
where everything is possible.
Yet, we are not here forever.
Our life is a short spark
in the beautiful little planet that flies with incredible speed to the endless darkness of the unknown universe.

So, enjoy your time here with passion.

Make it interesting.

Make it count.
