

“Every blade in the field - Every leaf in the forest - lays down its life in its season as beautifully as it was taken up.”

- Henry David Thoreau

Dianne Mae Bailey died peacefully on Oct 6, 2023.

She was born March 1, 1939, in Mayville, ND. She was raised on the farmlands of North Dakota and was the only child of Orlin and Ellen Kaldor. Dianne married her one true love Leonard Bailey on November 28, 1958. She attended Mayville State Teachers College and used those skills in raising four perfect daughters who wrote this obituary. In 1962, Leonard and Dianne moved to Detroit Lakes, MN, where they raised their family and were active members of the Congregational Church.

Dianne's greatest enjoyment came from a full house and she was always entertaining family and friends. Dianne participated in all her daughters activities be it as a Campfire Girls leader, a Sunday School Teacher, cheering us on from the bleachers or in later years, following all the activities of her grandkids spread all around the country on her iPad.

Dianne was loved and will be missed by four daughters: Sandy Weekley (John), Leasha Bailey, Sue Dahring (Mike) and Gwen Arechigo (Patrick), seven grandchildren: Michelle, Grant, Brett, Brandon, Brittany, Jake and Kennedy and nine great grandchildren: Paris, Austin, Jace, Rhea, Miles, Westin, Wyatt, Bailey and Camri.

*For Ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace:
The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into spring,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.*

Isaiah 55:12

Memorial Service

Saturday, October 14, 2023-10:00 am
Congregational United Church of Christ
Detroit Lakes, Minnesota

Officiating

Reverend Michael Fritz

Pianist

Mitsy Casey

Soloist

Susan Nicks

Musical Selections

“This is My Song”

“Amazing Grace”

Urn Bearers

All of Dianne’s Grandchildren

In Loving Memory of

Dianne Mae Bailey

March 1, 1939 - Mayville, North Dakota
October 6, 2023 - Detroit Lakes, Minnesota