

ULTIMATE SUCCESS EXPERT

RICK ORNELAS

RICK@ISPARKCHANGE.COM

Rick Ornelas is a Ultimate Success Coach, bestselling author, and founder of I Spark Change. He helps entrepreneurs flourish personally and professionally by eliminating the roadblocks preventing their success.

Rick wasn't always interested in helping others on a global scale despite being pushed repeatedly in that direction by a near-death experience, family tragedies, and deaths. It wasn't until the ever-worsening times of 2020 when he was anxious, isolated, and desperate that he finally got the wake-up call. His awakening came in the form of divine inspiration and an awe-inspiring spiritual connection when he least expected it.

He went from isolated and hopeless, to writing a best-selling book, 12 Hours of Heaven; Lessons for a Better World in under three months while envisioning and creating an incredible future.

Rick has been featured as an expert in multiple media outlets, including national/international television and radio. He's a regular writer for Lifhack, guest contributor for various websites, and has inspired listeners across the globe as a guest on over 75 podcasts!

His next book, 12 Hours of Heaven; Time on Earth, is in the works.

Are you ready to join us in creating a better world?

The I Spark Change Podcast is about those who spread positive change across the globe. They are doing acts or work that have a positive impact on humanity. The guests on our show are what we call Social Impact Heroes. These are everyday people like you and me. They make a difference, whether through their actions or their impact on others. In all instances, it's a beacon of light for everyone they encounter.
