Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that anyone could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts,
 We thank you so much whatever the part.
 The family of Stephanie R. Hudgins.*

Precious Memories

Stephanie Renae' Hudgins was born on August 9, 1972, in Omaha, Nebraska. to Stephen E. Hudgins and Cheryl S. McKinney. She brought much joy to many.

Stephanie matriculate through the Denver and Aurora Public Schools systems.

Stephanie persuaded a career in finance and made significant contributions and left a lasting impact. Her dedication and skills were admired by all who worked with her. She was truly a professional who excelled in her field.

Outside of work, Stephanie had a vibrant personality and an array of interests. She loved to cook lavish meals and host gatherings for her family and friends. Her culinary skills were unmatched, and she took great joy in bringing people together through food. Additionally, Stephanie had a passion for styling hair and interior decorating. She had a keen eye for aesthetics and transformed spaces into beautiful havens. Music was another source of happiness for Stephanie; she had an appreciation for diverse genres and enjoyed discovering new artists. Furthermore, she had an unmistakable love for shopping and had a knack for finding the perfect items.

Stephanie's love extended beyond her hobbies and interests; she had deep-rooted connections with her family members. She shared a special bond with her mother, Cheryl S. McKinney, who will cherish their memories together forever. Remembering Stephanie will bring forth memories of her immaculate home and the care she put into making it a welcoming place. She took pride in creating an environment that radiated warmth and comfort – a testament to her nurturing nature.

Stephanie brought light into the lives of those around her through her kind and generous spirit. She was known for her warm smile that could light up any room and her graceful presence that exuded class.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, Raymond and Betty R. Hudgins, Edgar McKinney and O. Mildred Cobb; her father, Stephen E. Hudgins, her sister Raven Williams; her cousin Vincent Todd McKinney; her.

The Chain

*We knew little that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,*

*You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
That day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide:
And though we cannot see you,*

*You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.*
