Oh Papa

For some of you, he was an uncle, cousin, dad, husband, or friend, but for us he was an amazing Grandfather. Greeting us with a smile and a hug, Papa loved his suggas.

We will miss your laughs, smile, hugs, and hearing your voice saying "oh boy".

We will forever be Papa's suggas.

We love you.

Reflection of Life

Mr. Calvin Morris Sr. transitioned into eternal rest on October 6, 2024 at St. Joseph's/Candler Hospital. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, whose impact will be felt for generations.

Born on November 14, 1946, in Savannah, Georgia, Calvin attended the public schools of Chatham County. He served his country with pride in the United States Navy before dedicating his career to the Savannah Fire Department, where he rose to the rank of captain.

Calvin married his high school sweetheart, Joyce Stewart, and together they created a loving family, blessed with two children: Calvin Morris Jr. (Natasha) and Nikkia Morris Parson (Chad). His family was his greatest treasure, and he cherished every moment spent with them.

An avid lover of the ocean, Calvin also pursued a successful business in seafood, sharing his passion with the community. He was known for his warmth, generosity, and the joy he brought to those around him.

Calvin leaves behind a legacy celebrated by his devoted wife, Joyce S. Morris; his children, Calvin Jr. (Natasha) and Nikkia (Chad); and four cherished grandchildren, Noelle Parson, Chase Parson, Janelle Morris, and Janae Morris. He is also survived by three devoted nephews, Zachary Blades (Tina), Ronnie Robinson (Gwen), and Julius Robinson, along with a host of family and friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

Rest in peace, Calvin. Your love and spirit will continue to inspire us all.
