

Sarah was born to Joshua & Fannie Batts Kilgore, September 15, 1937, in Batavia, OH. Sarah graduated from McNicholas High School in Mt. Washington, OH. Then Sarah served at St. Joseph Elementary School in Cincinnati, OH., until she received her degree in Education from Our Lady of Cincinnati College in Cincinnati, OH. In 1958, Sarah married the late Orville Wilson, Jr. To this union they had three sons: Aaron Thomas, Shawn Paul, and David Orville. Sarah began her teaching career at St. Joseph Elementary School in Cincinnati, OH. Sarah then taught and was the first black to teach in Mt. Washington, Ohio at an all-white school. Then Sarah was contracted as the first black to teach in the Milford Ohio school system. Later Sarah became teacher of the year in Clermont County Ohio. Sarah served as the first black member of the Clermont County League of Women. While in the league Sarah served as the coordinator of "Now You Are Eighteen". Sarah also served as secretary for Clermont County Senior Services. Sarah and her sisters loved to travel the world. They took trips to Africa, the Panama Canal, Alaska and many countries and states as the family "Golden Girls". Sarah was highly active in her church Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Batavia, OH. She served as a counter and many other volunteer positions at her church. Sarah lived a full life and was loved by all who met her.

In Loving Memory

Sarah A. Wilson

Born

September 15, 1937

Entered into Rest

July 22, 2022

Sarah was born to Joshua & Fannie Batts Kilgore, September 15, 1937, in Batavia, OH. Sarah graduated from McNicholas High School in Mt. Washington, OH. Then Sarah served at St. Joseph Elementary School in Cincinnati, OH., until she received her degree in Education from Our Lady of Cincinnati College in Cincinnati, OH. In 1958, Sarah married the late Orville Wilson, Jr. To this union they had three sons: Aaron Thomas, Shawn Paul, and David Orville. Sarah began her teaching career at St. Joseph Elementary School in Cincinnati, OH. Sarah then taught and was the first black to teach in Mt. Washington, Ohio at an all-white school. Then Sarah was contracted as the first black to teach in the Milford Ohio school system. Later Sarah became teacher of the year in Clermont County Ohio. Sarah served as the first black member of the Clermont County League of Women. While in the league Sarah served as the coordinator of "Now You Are Eighteen". Sarah also served as secretary for Clermont County Senior Services. Sarah and her sisters loved to travel the world. They took trips to Africa, the Panama Canal, Alaska and many countries and states as the family "Golden Girls". Sarah was highly active in her church Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Batavia, OH. She served as a counter and many other volunteer positions at her church. Sarah lived a full life and was loved by all who met her.

In Loving Memory

Sarah A. Wilson

Born

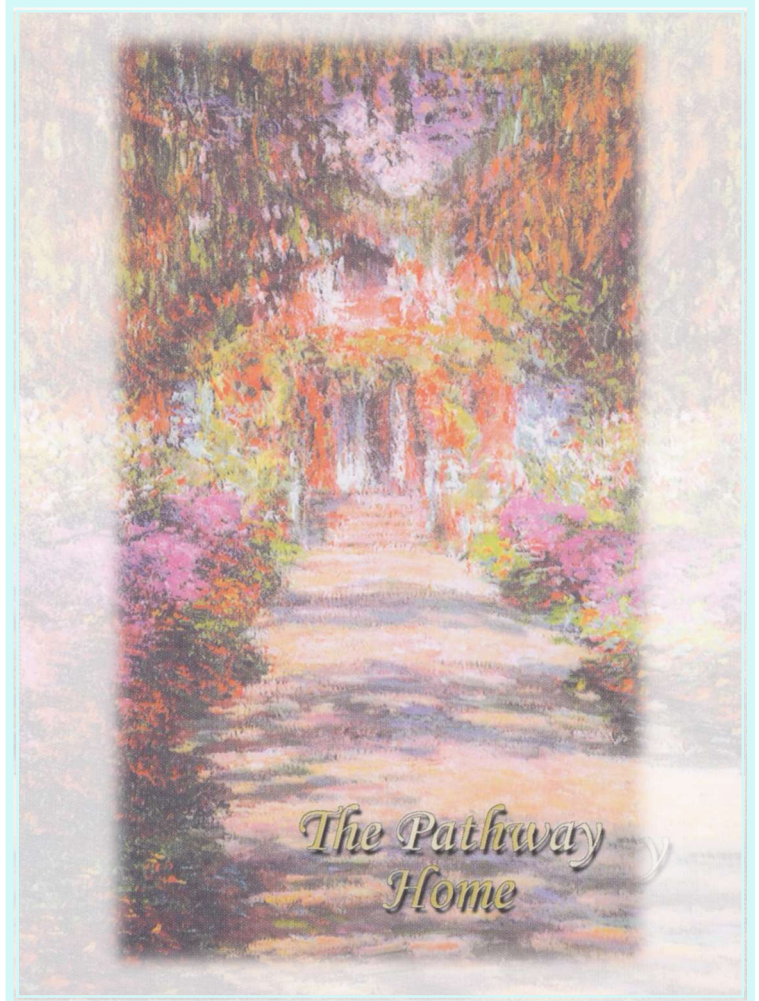

September 15, 1937

Entered into Rest

July 22, 2022

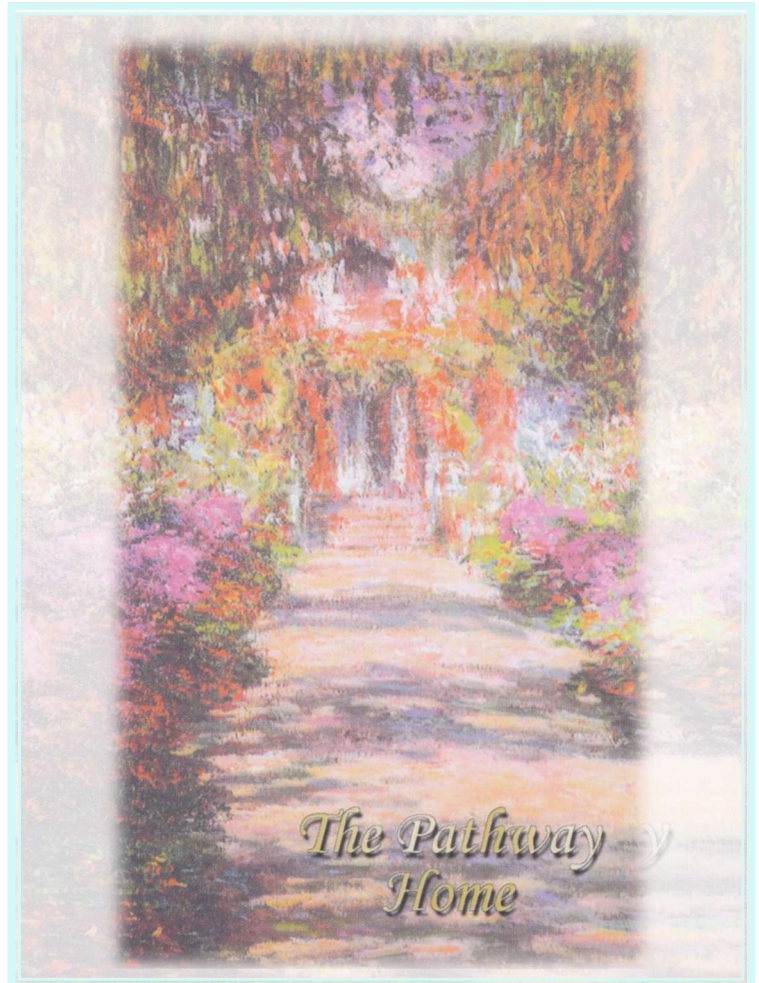

Sarah was proceeded in death by her Brother Richard Kilgore of Stroudsburg, PA., Sister Barbara Jean Kilgore Ward of Atlanta, GA, Brother's-in-law William Wilson of Milford, OH and Wesley Wilson of Cincinnati, OH, and son David Orville Wilson of Batavia, OH. Sarah leaves to mourn one devoted sister Janet Kilgore Taylor, of Denver, CO, one brother-in-law Erskine Wilson of Madisonville, OH, Sons Aaron Thomas of Batavia, OH. Shawn Paul and Naomi of E. Crest, CA, Three Grand Daughters Christen Wilson, and Ashley McKinney of Cincinnati, OH, Keir Alexa of West Hollywood, CA, Five Grandsons Jason Smith of Batavia, Taiga, Ichiro, Remington, and Erichsen Wilson of Crest, CA and a host of other relatives and friends.

Thank You for all your love and support given to the Wilson/Kilgore Family during this most difficult time.

Sarah was proceeded in death by her Brother Richard Kilgore of Stroudsburg, PA., Sister Barbara Jean Kilgore Ward of Atlanta, GA, Brother's-in-law William Wilson of Milford, OH and Wesley Wilson of Cincinnati, OH, and son David Orville Wilson of Batavia, OH. Sarah leaves to mourn one devoted sister Janet Kilgore Taylor, of Denver, CO, one brother-in-law Erskine Wilson of Madisonville, OH, Sons Aaron Thomas of Batavia, OH. Shawn Paul and Naomi of E. Crest, CA, Three Grand Daughters Christen Wilson, and Ashley McKinney of Cincinnati, OH, Keir Alexa of West Hollywood, CA, Five Grandsons Jason Smith of Batavia, Taiga, Ichiro, Remington, and Erichsen Wilson of Crest, CA and a host of other relatives and friends.

Thank You for all your love and support given to the Wilson/Kilgore Family during this most difficult time.

Catholic Prayer Service for
Sarah A. Wilson

Introduction and Greeting

Opening Song - How Great Thou Art
Opening Greetings -Deacon Michael Thomas
Blessing of the body
Opening Prayer
Eulogy - Brian Kevin Ward

Liturgy of the Word

Readings - Isiah 25: 6,7-9
- Psalm 23

” The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing that I shall want.”

- Revelations 21: 1-5,6-7
- Matthew 5: 1-12

Homily - Deacon Michael Thomas
General Intersessions
Lord’s Prayer

Final Commendations

Invitation to Prayer
Moment of Silence
Prayer of Farewell
Prayer of Commendation
Final Song - Blessed Assurance

Procession to Cemetery