

Beatrice "Bea" Kadrmas was born on January 20, 1932 in Hirschville, ND to Raymond and Monica (Boespflug) Gieser. Her family made their home in various towns throughout North Dakota, such as Rice Lake, Fort Yates, and Selfridge. She met Charles Kadrmas at a picnic in Versippee. The couple was married on November 8, 1950. They moved to the farm northwest of Dickinson where they made their home and raised their five children. Bea worked alongside Chuck on the farm until they retired to Dickinson in 1993. Beatrice loved cooking and baking for her family. Her family was her world, and she welcomed them and their friends for dinner often. She was self-sufficient, making everything she needed by hand – soap, butter, ketchup, candles, homemade bread, pickles, you name it. She enjoyed sewing, cross-stitching, and crocheting along with gardening. She did lots of reading, puzzles, and word searches. Beatrice was involved with the Homemakers Group and never missed a picnic. For many years she enjoyed attending water aerobics classes. Bea was especially proud of earning her GED. She enjoyed her years volunteering at Lincoln Elementary in her daughter's classroom. Beatrice is survived by her five children Kim (Helen) Kadrmas of Plymouth, MN, Keith Kadrmas of Hensler, ND, Ken (Rena) Kadrmas on the home farm, Elaine (Jim) Dennis of Dickinson, ND, and Tammie (Jeff) Dvorak of Gladstone, ND; 12 grandchildren: Brett Kadrmas, Melissa Kadrmas, Dan Kadrmas, Luke Kadrmas, Sarah Kadrmas, Jim Kadrmas, Dave Kadrmas, Angela Jung, Josh Gengler, Cole Gengler, Grant Dvorak, and Grace Dvorak; 13 great-grandchildren ShayLynn, Morgan, Timothy, Kolten, Kaci, Brea, Edison, Emma, Eva, Peyton, Abby, Autumn, and Drue. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband of 66 years, Charles; daughter-in-law Terry Kadrmas; and 10 brothers and sisters.

God's finger touched her and she slipped away

From earth's dark shadows
to a brighter day;

God saw the road was getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb;

He gently closed her weary eyes,

And whispered, "Peace be thine."

To a beautiful garden

this friend has gone,

To a land of perfect rest;

Though she is gone she still lives on in the garden of memory.
