

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of Charles King extends their sincerest appreciation for the love, comfort, and support during this time of grief.

Happy the Man

Happy the man, and happy he alone,

He who can call today his own:

He who, secure within, can say,

Tomorrow do thy worst, for I have lived today.

Be fair or foul or rain or shine

The joys I have possessed, in spite of fate, are mine.

Not Heaven itself upon the past has power,

But what has been, has been, and I have had my hour.

OBITUARY

Charles Douglas King, one of 14 children, was born on April 1st, 1939 in Clinton, North Carolina to parents Harvey and Katherine King, During his early life, Charles farmed with his parents along side his siblings.

Charles graduated from Sampson Highschool and went on to work at Lundy's Packing Company for numerous years. He left North Carolina and went north to Maryland, Philadelphia, and Washington D.C, where he found a love for mechanics. He came back down south and opened his own mechanics shop in Selma, NC where he worked until his health gradually declined.

On April 1st, 2023, Charles was called home to his final resting place with our heavenly Father. He is preceded in death by his parents, Harvey and Katherine King and his brother, Stanley King.

Charles leaves to cherish his legacy: his wife, Linda; children, Velma King, Douglas King (Tanyelle), Gilbert Lee King, and Char-Les King (Tajai Liles) Charles also leaves behind 12 siblings, 12 grandchildren, and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

Charles will truly be missed and loved by so many. His memories are forever with us.
