HOW DO WE GROW OUR CHILDREN?

by Ramon V. Baldovino

After an interview with singer CeCe Winans, People Weekly reported:

Gospel singer CeCe Winans, who was raised in a Christian home and who didn't wear makeup until she was 18, says she isn't about to embrace pop rock—professionally or personally.

"I don't listen to secular music at home," says Winans, 31, who lives in Nashville with her husband and manager, Alvin Love, and their kids Alvin III, 10, and Ashley, 8. "Very seldom do you find a mainstream artist who does only clean music. It's hard for me to wonder whether my children are going to listen to just the clean songs, so it's better to eliminate that music altogether."

CeCe Winans understands that parents are responsible for the environment that children have in the home and often that means parents must give up something themselves. (From Craig Brian Larson and Leadership Journal)

Today we shall hear two young speakers, Carlo Celestial and Jordan Wallace, deliver the Lord's message to our church family and friends. It often thrills me to know that as a congregation, we are willing to hand them the keys of leadership and ministry. When we do this, our young people learn to trust us with their hearts, their energy, their creative minds, and even their buddies. It's time that we grew our church young and that we involved our children and young people in the Lord's work with purpose and intentionality. However, for that to really happen with great impact, the spiritual training and mentoring of our children should first happen in the home. So dear parents, thank you for being God's chosen mentors and teachers. Constantly be aware that your daily tasks are no simple, ordinary tasks. They are chores that build God's kingdom!

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES

As We Come To You In Prayer

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray, Take our hearts and minds far away,
From the press of the world all around, To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love, May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere, Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

Almighty Father

Almighty Father, hear our prayer, and bless all souls that wait before Thee. AMEN.

We Have This Hope

We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
We have this faith that Christ alone imparts,
Faith in the promise of His word.
We believe the time is here, When the nations far and near Shall awake, and shout and sing Hallelujah! Christ is King!
We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
