"Miss Me, But Let Me Go"

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*

The Obituary

Mary Louise Williams, 60, transitioned this life on Wednesday, April 15, 2021 at Vidant Medical Center in Greenville, NC.

Mary Louise Williams or "B. A." as she was fondly known by her family and friends, was born on July 3, 1960, to the late Aaron and Lillie Williams of Clayton, NC.

Mary was educated in the Johnston County Public Schools system. She was a dedicated food services worker and was employed as a cook at Toot-N-Tell Restaurant in Garner, NC for the better part of twenty years.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers, Aaron and Robert; a sister, Margaret; and two nephews, Gary and Wayne.

Left to mourn her loss, she is survived by two sons, Jeffrey Williams of Clayton and Quantae Williams of Wilson; a daughter-in-law, Tiffany Williams of Wilson, two grandsons, Jontae Williams and Choice Williams of Wilson; two sisters, Annie Williams of Clayton and Lena Williams of Clayton; two brothers, Donnie Williams of Clayton and Andrew Williams of Clayton; a nephew, Anthony Crisp of Raleigh; four nieces, Katina Williams of Clayton, Denise Williams of Selma, Regina Crisp of Raleigh, and Cathy Crisp of Raleigh; along with her great-nieces and great-nephews.
