I Was Here

I want to leave my footprints on the sands of time
Know there was something that, something that I left behind
When I leave this world, I'll leave no regrets
Leave something to remember, so they won't forget
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done, everything that I wanted
And it was more than I thought it would be
I will leave my mark so everyone will know I was here
I wanna say I lived each day, until I died
I know that I had something in somebody's life
The hearts I have touched, will be the proof that I leave
That I made a difference and this world will see
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done, everything that I wanted
And it was more than I thought it would be
I will leave my mark so everyone will know
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done, everything that I wanted
And it was more than I thought it would be
I will leave my mark so everyone will know
I was here
I just want them to know
That I gave my all, did my best
Brought someone some happiness
Left this world a little better just because
I was here
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done, everything that I wanted
And it was more than I thought it would be
I wanna leave my mark so everyone will know
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done
I was here, I lived, I loved, I was here
I did, I've done
I was here

In Appreciation

With our heartfelt sincere appreciation, the family would like to thank everyone for their acts of love, kindness, prayers and encouragement during this time. May God continue to bless and keep you in His care.

Her Story

Jeanne was affectionately known as Momma, was the oldest of 4 children from the late Charles Dunn and Ann Rogers-Ruffin.

Jeanne was born on May 6, 1934 in Newark, New Jersey where she lived as a young child before moving to Philadelphia with her grandmother, the late Allene Rogers. Her final resting place was on January 31, 2023.

Jeanne, our little lady, loved her family and friends. She was a beautiful lady with a loving and sometimes a fiesty soul. She was loved by many. She survived here on earth raising her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, among many other children in the neighborhood who called her Momma Jean.

As a young lady lady, Jeanne was raised and baptized as a member of Faith Baptist Church and later transitioned to Christlike Pleasant Green Faith Baptist Church. Through the year, she graduated from Simon Gratz High School in 1951. As she got older, she dedicated herself to doing housekeeping for a law firm for many years.

Jeanne loved hymns and songs that she sung with the small Gospel chorus with her Christian family. Her last wish was to come to church to see her Christian family but couldn't due to transportation.

Jeanne will forever be remembered and proceeded in death by her late husband, Thomas Randolph Lee. She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Allene Ruffin; one son, Eric Lee; three stepchildren, Ronnie, Darlene and Sharon Lee; five granddaughter, Erica, Yanisha, Desiree, Ronisha and Ronlynn; eight grandsons, Lamar, Lyron, Basil, Lil Eric, Tyreek, Devron, Jerome, and Anthony; 15 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and Godchildren.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

To Our Grandma

*For all the times you gently picked me up when I fell down
For all the times you tied my shoes and tucked me into bed
Or needed something, but put me first instead.*

*For everthing we shared, the dreams, the laughter, and the tears.
I love you with a special love that deepens every year.*

Thank you Grandma!

From your Grandchildren
