Linette Kay was born on June 5, 1962, to Lyman and Marilyn (Galvin) Oberhelman, in Fort Dodge, Iowa. She graduated from Fort Dodge High School in 1981, and then attended Iowa Central Community College. She married Tom Vanatter on September 10th, 1994, in Las Vegas, NV.

Linette served as a cook for the Webster City Community Schools until she became a full-time caregiver for her husband Tom. She was a member of Anchor Point Church in Webster City, where she helped in the kitchen for many events, and attended Bible Studies. Linette was an excellent cook and enjoyed feeding people, she also loved to shop, and have her hair and nails done. Linette was good at everything she did, which included quilting and sewing. Most of all she enjoyed the quality time she could spend with her grandchildren.

Linette's family includes her husband of 29 years, Tom; father Lyman "Bill" Oberhelman; Three Children: Carrie (Kent) Tilley of Stratford, Rose (Darren) Plain, of Webster City, and James (Jackie) Peterson, of Webster City; nine grandchildren; five siblings: Debbie (Kurt) Liscum, Dave (Debbie) Burton, Larry (Marilyn) Oberhelman, Lyle (Jackie) Oberhelman, and Jim Oberhelman. She was preceded in death by her mother.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me
By David M. Romano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne

He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart
