INTERMENT

Aberdeen Cemetery ~ Aberdeen, Idaho
Dedication of The Grave ~ Alan Jones

To the woman who danced to her own beat,
With laughter and sass that couldn't be beat.
A spirit so bold, in colors so bright,
She taught us to stand, to love, and to fight.

With wit like a whip and a heart full of gold,
Her stories and wisdom never grew old.
In every defiant, mischievous grin,
We see her light, her fire within.

And oh, how she'd flash that pointer finger
With a wink and a laugh, her spirit would linger
In every cheeky joke and playful tease,
She showed us how to embrace life with ease,

Though she's now gone, her echo remains,
In our hearts, her love forever sustains
So here's to Grandma, fierce and free,
Her legacy lives in you and me.

So let's raise a glass to her joyful flair,
To the woman who taught us to dance without care.
With every twirl and every bold move,
We carry her spirit, her rhythm, her groove.

~Tia Farrens
