In Loving Memory

John Parker

January 9, 1977 - January 9, 2022

God saw you were getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come with me."
With tear filled eyes we watched you suffer,
And watched you fade away.
Although we love you deeply,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
A determined spirit was at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
God looked around His garden
And saw an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
