

Ethan Riley Kamranian,

11, of Crookston, MN, died unexpectedly at his home Wednesday morning, September 27, 2017. Ethan was born at Dunseith, ND on June 30, 2006 to birth parents, Shahin Kamranian and Christianna LaVallie. For the last few years he had making his home in Crookston with his grandmother, Linda Blow; dad, Scott Blow; and little sister, Jasmine Blow.

Ethan was a 6th grader at Highland Middle School, where he was learning to play the violin in the school orchestra. He had also recently begun taking guitar lessons. Ethan enjoyed doing all the things 11-year old boys like to do, including playing video games, and going out into the neighborhood to play soccer, football, and basketball. Summers were fun, and meant going to the family's spot at Roy Lake, where he fished and worked on his skills as a beginning water-skier. Ethan attended Wesley United Methodist Church and Sunday school, and liked to sing with the other kids during church services. He was a member of the local Cub Scout troop, and would have soon moved up to Boy Scouts.

Ethan will be lovingly remembered and very sadly missed by his dad, Scott Blow, grandmother, Linda Blow, and 10-year old sister, Jasmine Blow, all of Crookston, MN. He also is survived by his birth parents, Shahin Kamranian of Fargo, ND and Christianna LaVallie of Williston, ND; grandparents, Jeff and Brenda Wambeke of Williston, and Reza Kamranian of Bismarck, ND; as well as, several aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Darrel Blow. Blessed be Ethan's memory.

*I am not gone. Just took a ride on my bike to Heaven's door to make a place with my Master and ask if I can ride his Glorious Skies.
Sadness and pain I no longer feel,
as I was blessed with Peace on this very night.
Think not of the emptiness you all feel,
for I will be riding high as you all will see.
So lift up your eyes and think of me,
for I have not left you.
I just took a ride.*

In Loving Memory
