

In Remembrance of Donna Jean Dain Snow

“At the end of your lives you will not be judged by academic successes, the degrees or diplomas earned, the positions held, the material wealth acquired, or power and prestige, but rather on the basis of what you have become as persons and what you are in conduct and character.”

– Howard W. Hunter

Dedication of the Grave Karl Nelson Snow III (Son)

*“Who can find a virtuous woman?
for her price is far above rubies...
She stretcheth out her hand to the poor;
yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy...
Strength and honour are her clothing;
and she shall rejoice in time to come.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household,
and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praiseth her...
Give her of the fruit of her hands;
and let her own works praise her in the gates.”*
