UP COMING EVENTS:

Cohort Groups - We will continue with our afternoon cohort groups at Foothills next week and continue with our Zoom instruction in the mornings. Students will be accepted into their classrooms for tutoring or other assistance with their school work. Remember, this is NOT mandatory, and no new content will be taught (this is not school!). The students will be only with their classmates and their teacher, in a group of less than 14, as required by the new California State guidelines for Cohort Groups. All students on campus will need to be masked, and we will be practicing social distancing. We will also be observing precautions as outlined by Federal, State, and County guidance.

Schedule for Next Week
