

GEORGE THOMAS COWLES

George Thomas Cowles, 71 of Smiths Grove, died at 2:20 a.m., April 10, 2007 at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

The Edmonson County native was a farmer and custodian for Warren County School System and a member of Dedicated Baptist Church. He was a son of the late James Wilbur Cowles and Betty Jane Wells Cowles. He was preceded in death by a son Paul Burton Cowles; a brother James Cowles, a sister Kathreen Fields, a step brother Dallas McAdoo.

Funeral is at 11 a.m. Friday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel, with burial in Bethel Cemetery. Visitation is Wednesday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

Survivors include his wife Barbara Jo Talley Cowles of Smiths Grove; five daughters; Bonita Gail Vanhooose and her husband Greg of Smiths Grove, Rhonda Lynn VanMeter, Audrey Mae Clark and her husband Ronnie, Janette Carol Sullivan and her husband Gary all of Bowling Green and Mildred Angela Sailings and her husband Anthony of Brownsville; three sons, Donald Thomas (Bucky) Cowles and his wife Linda and Dalton Burton Cowles and Hank Wayne Cowles all of Smiths Grove; nineteen grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, three sister;; Dora Richard and Mary Montgomery both of Bowling Green and Cora Taylor of Richardsville; two brothers; Donnie Cowles and his wife Joann of Smiths Grove and Raymond Cowles of Richardsville two half sisters; Wilma Embry and her husband Floyd of Bowling Green and Pamela Porter and her husband David of Scottsville; two half brothers; Wilbur Jr. Cowles and his wife Janet of Bowling Green and Michael Cowles and his wife Merion of Howell, MI. three step brothers; Robert McAdoo of Scottsville, Jerry McAdoo and Gilbert McAdoo both of Bowling Green; five step sisters, Kathleen Thurston of Cave City, Estill McAdoo of Rodchester, Elizabeth Cox of Edmonson County, Phyllis Cox of Bowling Green and Viola King of Scottsville

Send Condolences

