

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and time of peace.

We deeply appreciate the tribute accorded to our loved one by your presence here today. We would be pleased if you would join us for lunch and fellowship following the committal service back at the church basement.
