Reflection of Life

Gwendolyn Dixon Brown, age 65 was born in Savannah, Georgia May 25, 1958, and went home to be with the Lord at East Georgia Regional Hospital in Statesboro, Georgia on Thursday, April 25, 2024. She was preceded in death by her parents the late William and Jannie Lee Dixon.; brother (William Dixon) and sister (Pearl Dixon). Her family is profoundly saddened by her loss. Gwen was one of seven children where she grew up in a loving home. She enjoyed listening to music and fishing. She was a loving person with a big heart who enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Whenever you needed anything, she would give it to you be it monetary or her time. She received her formative education in the Savannah Chatham County Public School System. She worked at various places but was a stay-at-home mom for most of her life. Gwen gifted the world with three sons Andre, Frederick, and Rashad. She had a different, but special relationship with each of them. Gwen accepted The Lord and Savior as a young woman. She was a member of St. Philip Monumental A.M.E. Church for 15 years before changing her membership to Litway Missionary Baptist Church. Her ministry of choice was serving as a gate keeper of God's house on the usher board. Although Gwen had health issues, she always found a way to smile and laugh. For most of her life Gwen was a woman of simple pleasures and persevered through the hand that she was dealt. Gwen's memory will eternally live in the hearts of her friends and family. Family members she leaves behind are her three sons; Andre Jones, Savannah, GA, Frederick Brown (Etaki) and Rashad Jones Savannah, GA., brothers Eddie Roberson (Deborah) Pooler, GA, Preston Harold Dixon (Margie) Savannah, Georgia, sisters: Burma Jean Ruth Savannah, GA and Geneva Johnson, Brooklyn, NY, nine grandchildren, two great\ grandchildren, 15 nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my mother's arms
And tell her I love her and miss her,
And when she turns and smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while Because remembering her is easy,
I'll do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.
