TEACHING NEW FOLLOWERS

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you." (Matthew 28:20, NLT)

I am Jesus, teaching new believers. Did you see two things in today's verses? First, I commanded the church to teach new disciples all My commands. Second, the church got people saved and then they taught them. Early exponential church growth was based on teaching new converts My commands. Is your church doing that today? When hundreds in a neighborhood become new followers, teach them what to believe and train them how to live for Me. Do that and you will change a neighborhood. How can you change the world? Get people saved, then teach them what to believe and how to live for Me. Then reproduce that result in another new church.

I am the Church, and in Me all types of teaching go on. Babies are being taught; older people are being taught. People are being taught how to serve, how to lead, and how to be better parents and examples to lost people. All kinds of people are teaching: church leaders, older women teaching younger women, parents teaching their children. And teaching is going on in Sabbath school classes, for all ages, and all needs, and all different subjects. I want My church to be a teaching church.

Personal Prayer: Lord, thank You for my parents, who taught me many things. I will teach my family and children. Thank You for all types of teachers in my church. Help me learn, grow, and serve You better. I will teach. Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: Scripture is filled with commands and illustrations of teaching. You can't build a church on teaching; you build it on evangelism. You can't build a church without teaching.
