

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

In Remembrance of

Mary Emma Meadville

1926-2024

Mary Emma Meadville, formerly of Duke, Oklahoma, departed from us after 98 years of a well-lived life, on Saturday, November 16, 2024, in McAlester.

Mary Emma entered this life on February 9, 1926. Born to Jesse Lee and Nettie (Hall) Ballard in Lugert, Mary Emma was one of eight children. She attended school in Duke. She married Peter Russell "Pete" Meadville on Friday, November 13, 1942, at the Elm and Hudson Church of Christ. She was a devoted wife and homemaker, raising their three children. Mary Emma and Pete shared 44 years together; 34 of those years were in California before his passing in 1987.

A self-proclaimed tomboy, growing up, Mary Emma loved playing outside with her brothers or jumping on a horse bareback for a ride. She loved sports of all kinds and especially enjoyed watching baseball and basketball games. She was a wonderful cook and never wanted anyone to go hungry. Her enchiladas, tacos, and chocolate and pecan pies were known and loved by all.

Her loving husband, Pete; parents, Jesse and Nettie; and siblings, Marie Walker, Monroe Ballard, Quint Ballard, JD Ballard, Lela Mae Martin, Curtis Ballard, and Lucille Sumrow preceded her in death.

Mary Emma's memory will live on in her children, Ron Meadville and wife, Bobbi, Barbara Knapp, and Kathy Johns and husband, Eddie; grandchildren, Pete, Patrick, Jennifer, Holly, Levi, and Jarod; great-grandchildren, Chelsi, Madilyn, Aubrey, Landon, Lila, Eli, and Max; great great-grandchildren, Kaylynn, Rylee, and Amanda; and a host of nieces and nephews.
