She joins her grandparents, father in-law, Denny Olson and her brother in law, Perry Olson in heaven.

She is survived by her husband Bruce, children, Denys (Laura Kissinger) Olson, Polly Olson and Paige (Taylor) Beck. Her step-children, Melissa (Ron) Mack, Bruce (Candice) Adkins. Her grandchildren, Cooper, Daxton and Selah. Her step grandchildren, Katelyn and Alexis Mack, Morganne, Dawson, and Maddy Adkins. Her fur grandbabies, Meridian, Karlie, Juniper, Bella, Lucy and Zoey. Her parents, Carol and Harry Meyer. Her sisters, Sheri (Mike), Diane, Susan and brother Bill Meyer. Her mother in law, Betty Olson. She is also survived by many brother in-laws, sister in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She may not be here in person, but her strength, courage and compassion will inspire us to find the joy in each of our lives. She will forever be in our hearts, as we will forever be in hers.

Although she was angry at the disease, she never stopped living or finding the joy in her life. Even though she was not very fond of her treatments, she was blessed to have spent time with her family, on the farm she grew up at. She was able to visit her new grandson in Montana, she got to help her daughter, Polly get settled into her new home and classroom and she enjoyed baking with her daughter, Paige's family. She was even able to binge watch numerous shows with her husband Bruce, on their new WIFI.

Laurie's greatest joy, came from being a grandma to her three, precious grandchildren and six fur grandbabies. However, if we're being honest, she only loved the cat and dogs because her children loved them.

Laurie was a teacher in all aspects of her life and loved her students and their families like her own. She enjoyed her house in the woods, baking, crocheting and hanging clothes on the line. She dedicated herself to helping others and trusting God to guide her through all situations in life.

Laurie Meyer-Olson was born and raised on the Meyer family farm in Byron, MN; contrary to her dislike of animals, she enjoyed baking, cleaning and playing with her younger sisters and brother. Upon graduating college, she moved up to Detroit Lakes, MN, to officially begin her teaching career. It is also there, that she met the love of her life and raised her three children and two stepchildren.

Laurie Meyer-Olson age 58, of Detroit Lakes, died Saturday, March 23, 2019 at home surrounded by her loving family, after a long battle with cancer. She never lost her smile and was filled with hope.
