Celestial Friends

Celestial friends are special; they always show they care.
So, to fulfill the Law of Christ they each other's burdens bear.

Trials can be unbearable; they are very hard to hold.
So, lean on me because I care, and I'll help you to be bold.

Depression sets in. You wonder why. How could this happen?
I can't go on!
So, lean on me because I care; until all doubts and fears are gone.

You say your gait is shaky, and it's hard to walk up tall.
So, lean on me because I care; hold to the rod, you will not fall.

Just be yourself, trust in the Lord and hold your head up high.
So, lean on me because I care; the days will be better by and by.

Someday we'll all be thankful for learning from our trials.
So, lean on me because I care; we'll change those frowns to smiles.

Celestial Friends are special; they always show they care.
So, to fulfill the law of Christ; they each other's burdens bear.
