The Nepean Family Life Ministries: This week's Marriage Health Tip is about: "Getting Along with HER Parents"

Your relationship with your wife's parents will have a lasting effect on your marriage whether you like it or not. According to studies, when a husband has a great relationship with his wife's parents, the risk of divorce decreases by 20 percent. Here's the good news, in general, it's pretty easy for men to get along with their in-laws ... Please visit our web site for more on this subject www.nepeanadventist.org/ministries/family-life.

Welcome & Happy Sabbath!

Many of us pray for a breakthrough in our lives but so few knew where to look or how to begin. Are there things we can do to help? And is it possible that we are doing things to prevent God from moving in our lives. Join us today as Pastor Bob talks about fasting as a tool God uses to bless his people in this message entitled:

Giving up to Get Closer

If my people who are called by name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn
from their wicked ways,
then I will hear from Heaven and will forgive
their sin and heal their land

2 Chronicles 7:14
