ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our family wishes to express sincere appreciation and deepest gratitude for all acts of kindness extended during our bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

“A NOTE TO MOM: A SON’S LOVE”

Mom,

Maybe I don't tell you often enough but I love you and I am so very proud of you. I just sit back and think about all you did for me and wonder how you did them! No matter what it was, big or small, if I needed it, if it was important to me, you found a way to get it for me ...THANK YOU!

I thank you for your love, support, understanding, and most of all for you being an anchor, a rock when I needed a strong foundation. I thank you for letting each of your children find themselves, for letting each of us find our own identity and become our own person (Isn't it funny that when we needed to find ourselves, we all kind of drifted home!!)

I thank you for stressing the importance of education, for showing us that other things existed other than the black desolate environment called “North Philly”.

I thank you for being the strongest woman, the best role model and the best friend I could ever have. Some of the things we went through as a family are unbelievable but you were there holding everything together. You are there for everybody! Your kids, brothers, sisters, in-laws...just about anyone who needed a shoulder to lean on or an ear to talk to, you were there. I just hope one day, I can be there for you. I could go on for pages and pages, filling an infinite number of notebooks just letting you know how much you mean to me. I thank you for a lot of things, big and small, but most of all, I thank you for being you!

Love Always, Darryl

Patricia "Pat" (Brown) Davis, born on April 6, 1944, to Mary Rich and Robert Brown in Philadelphia, PA, peacefully left this world on November 1st, 2023, surrounded by the love of her family. She was the third eldest of eight siblings and a beloved matriarch who touched the lives of many.

Patricia's journey in life was marked by dedication and love. She married the love of her life, James "Jimmy" Lee Davis and remained married until his passing in 2016. From their union, they welcomed three children: Pamela, Darryl, and Jamie. Her family was the center of her world, and she devoted herself to their happiness and well-being.

Patricia received her education in the Philadelphia school system, culminating in her high school graduation in 1972. She briefly lived in Harlem, New York, NY and later returned to Philadelphia where she went on to have a fulfilling career, proudly serving as the Circulation Finance Associate for the Philadelphia Tribune for 25 years until her well-deserved retirement in 2007. Her professionalism and dedication earned her the respect and admiration of her colleagues.

Even in retirement, Patricia's enthusiasm for life never waned. She found joy in staying active and took on a part-time job at her favorite store, Marshall's, where she could indulge in her passion for shopping at TJX company stores. She remained a valued member of the Marshall's family until her untimely passing.

Patricia was not only a career woman but also a pillar of her community. Considered the "Mayor of North Philly", she actively served on the Democratic Ward Executive Committee, where her passion for making a positive impact was evident as she aided in the elections and worked closely with many notable politicians including State Senator Shirley Kitchen. Pat could also be found working the polls on every Election Day. Her dedication to public service and community involvement was a testament to her character.

Patricia attended Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Gabriel A. Smith. Patricia's unwavering faith and dedication to the church were a testament to her loving spirit as she remained a faithful member until the church's closing.

Patricia was preceded in death by her beloved husband, James "Jimmy," and her son, Darryl. She leaves behind cherished memories in the hearts of her surviving family, including her daughters Pamela (Tim) of Glenn Dale, MD and Jamie, her special son Lil' James, and her special niece who is like a daughter, Brenda. Her legacy also lives on through her grandchildren Lauren, Javier "Paco," Remi, Djimon, Judea, and her great-grandchildren Taylor, Javier III, Nasir, and Sir. Additionally, Patricia is survived by brothers Alvin and Donald, sisters Audrey, Teresa, and Netta, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Patricia Davis was a remarkable woman, known for her love, strength, dedication. She will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. May her memory be a source of comfort and inspiration during this time of loss."

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
