A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "up above"

James Edward Marris, 91, of Sperry, OK, was born February 20, 1931, in Skiatook, OK, to John Little John and Audrey Mae (Fisher) Marris. He passed away June 14, 2022, in Tulsa, OK.

James grew up following various Oklahoma drilling sites, moving from place-to-place drilling for oil and eventually settled in Sperry. James worked for American Airlines for 41 years as a DC10 Overhaul Crew Chief. He retired early so that he could take care of his ailing wife before her passing in 1999. After retiring from American Airlines, James started remodeling houses and went on to retire again at the age of 85. James was also a pastor for several local churches. He loved to go fishing, working on cars, and working on large gardens that he would share with the family.

He is survived by his sons, Joe Marris and Jim Marris; daughter, Louisa Bilyeau; 14 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren; 7 great-great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his wives, Irene Marris, and Laverne Marris; children, Steve Marris, Sharon Marris, Gordon Key, and Tom Key; father, John Marris; mother, Audrey Marris; brother, Johnny Marris; and sisters, Martha (Marris) Rowden, and Mary Lou (Marris) Weymire.
