Tonnie Sue Boleman Ankerich
September 24, 1932 - September 27, 2024

Mrs. Tonnie 'Sue' Boleman Ankerich, of Canon, wife of 69 years to the late Joel Payton Ankerich, went to be with the Lord on Friday, September 27, 2024, at her residence, three days after her 92nd birthday.

Born in the Reed Creek Community of Hart County on September 24, 1932, Sue was the youngest child of the late Walter Reese Boleman, Sr. and Leila Harriett Ayers Boleman. A member of Bethany Baptist Church, she loved her Savior with all of her heart and loved studying God's word. Sue was a powerful prayer warrior who never missed an opportunity to pray with or extend a word of encouragement to anyone in need. She had a talent for writing, and used her ability to write many poems throughout the years. Sue loved yard work and worked hard keeping her flower gardens immaculate as long as her health would permit. Affectionately known as MaSue to her family, she was a woman with a strong, and sometimes stubborn, spirit that loved her family dearly.

Survivors include her children: Anne A. and Norman Berry of Elberton, Tonnie A. Garner of Bowman, and Mark Ankerich of Canon; grandchildren: Stephanie Bryant, Matt and Joni Berry, Sean Burdette, Chris and Erin Berry, Caitlin A. and Kyle Ledford, and Conner and Cierra Ankerich; great-grandchildren: Victoria Berry, Colin Berry, Alexandria Burdette, and Luke Ledford; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Along with her husband and parents, she is preceded in death by her siblings: Daisy Brandt, Elizabeth Robertson, John Boleman, Calaway Boleman, Hattie Toole, Ann Robertson, Marion Jenkins, Reese Boleman, Furman Boleman, and Harrison Bolman; grandson, Russell Berry; and great-grandchildren: Meadow Berry and Hunter Berry.

Remember Me
Loving Memory

Remember me when the day is new
When grass is wet with morning dew
Remember me when the sky's so blue
Just feel my presence inside of you
The freshness of a summer rain
The fresh scent of a harvest grain
Joy of seeing a newborn child
Remember me when you smile
To see the beauty of flowers and trees
Our God created them for us to see
The joy of a beautiful summer day
To enjoy all the children as they play
To see the ground all while with snow
Remember me when the cold winds blow
Remember me when the moon shines so bright
The joy of seeing stars at night
Remember me as the days go by
Remember me with joy and please don't cry,
'cause I'm safe with God in Heaven above
May you always remember me with love
