

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void, the fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

I Thessalonians 4:13-14; Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

OBITUARY

Barbara Clark Nubie, loving wife, mother, and grandmother passed away surrounded by her family on Saturday, January 20th, 2024, at the age of 75. Born on March 16, 1948, in Campbell County, she was the daughter of the late Christine and Curtis Nowlin.

Barbara's journey through life included notable achievements and a legacy of love and dedication. She graduated from Campbell High School and embarked on a remarkable career at BWXT, where she dedicated 36 years of hard work before retiring.

Barbara touched the hearts of everyone she encountered. Her kindness, compassion, and genuine care endeared her to friends, family, and colleagues alike. Barbara's impact extended beyond the workplace; she was an integral part of Cross Road Baptist Church, where her faith played a central role in her life.

Barbara served her church community with unwavering dedication. As a faithful member of Cross Road Baptist Church, she actively participated in various roles, including serving on the usher board, being a valued choir member, contributing to the food committee, and fulfilling the role of sexton. Her commitment to the Serving The Lord Gospel Singers spanned an impressive 26 years, where her melodious voice and passion for singing brought joy to many.

Barbara Clark Nubie leaves behind a legacy of love and family. She is survived by her devoted husband of 53 years, Jesse Nubie Sr; two loving sons: Jesse Nubie Jr (Jennifer) of Austin, Texas, and Christopher Nubie (Tonya) of Lynchburg, Virginia. She will be remembered fondly by her granddaughter: Juliet Nubie of Austin, Texas and step-grandchildren Tre'Zhon Reid, and Talib Reid, of Lynchburg, Virginia. Brother, Garland Clark (Shirley), and sister, Vannasa Rosser (Charles White), both of Lynchburg, Virginia. Cousins, Mary Fleshman, Jaeden Smith and Jordan Smith of Lynchburg Virginia. Barbara's memory will be cherished by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom were touched by her kindness and love throughout the years.

In honoring the life of Barbara Clark Nubie, let us remember the warmth of her infectious smile, the melody of her voice, and the boundless love she shared with all fortunate enough to know her. May she rest in eternal peace, surrounded by the heavenly choir she now joins. Her memory will live on through the countless lives she touched, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, faith, and joy that will continue to resonate in the hearts of those who were privileged to be part of her remarkable journey.
