

Lorraine J. Stiles

Lorraine was born in Katherine, North Dakota, to Walter and Hazel Fredrick on July 23, 1933. After graduating from Valley City High School, she attended Valley City State University. She married Duane "Ole" Stiles, her husband of 49 years, on November 2, 1952 in Valley City, North Dakota. In 1964, they moved to Fairmount, North Dakota and purchased the Fairmount Lockers where they worked side by side for many years. She loved to crochet and knit sweaters for her grandchildren. Lorraine loved flowers and spent many hours tending her flowerbeds.

She is survived by her five children; David Stiles of Colorado Springs, CO, Wendy (Derryl) Moon of Cave Creek, AZ, Pam Foy of Fargo, North Dakota, Tim (Tina) Stiles of Fairmount, North Dakota, Jill Stiles of Garretson, SD; grandchildren, David Jr., Brandon, Amber, Barry, Rachael, Nikki, Tiffany, Trevor, Travis, Maggie, Mitch, Katie; 23 great-grandchildren; sisters, Kathy Taylor, Dorothy Osborn, Grace Hall, Maxine Arnold.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Duane "Ole" Stiles; her infant son; her parents and one brother, John Fredrick.

The family would like to thank St. Gerard's Community Nursing Home for their exceptional care.

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a
soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.
