THE LIFE OF JOHN MCGREGOR

John McGregor was born on May 15, 1950 to his parents Watt and Willie Mae McGregor in Quanah Texas. John was the tenth child of twelve children. The family relocated to Denver Colorado in 1952. John received his formal education through the Denver Public School System

John was the father of two daughters, Korrie Fion Sanders and Randee TeNeil Estes and stepfather to Jody and Ms. La La, he was also the grandfather of seven grandchildren:

Yaunee LaCrae Adams, Lance LaRoy Sanders, Leonard Brice, IV, Lekhari Brice and Lailah Fion Brice, Kennedi Butler and Nathaniel Edward Estes, III who preceded him in death

John was self-employed as a professional interstate truck driver who enjoyed listening to music especially Jazz. He will be remembered as someone who was always dressed to perfection.

He was a devote Jehovah Witness and often times when you went to his home he was studying the Holy Scriptures. He was faithful to his commitment to Jehovah.

John married Beverly Bell in 1999 and they shared a happy union of marriage for 21 years. The both of them enjoyed entertaining family and friends at home.

Those left to mourn his loss and cherish many happy memories include his wife Beverly and his siblings Earl, Joyce, Joann and Willie and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free!
